

ADVANCED Culinary Arts Training

Do you have food and hospitality experience? Looking for better pay, benefits & a stable future?

Consider a union job in the culinary arts at a local hotel, restaurant, convention center, or catering company. With new skills, you'll prepare distinctive food and beverages while providing service that delights discerning guests.

These jobs pay well & are great for people who like working in teams. Culinary pros can work mornings, days, nights, weekdays and weekends, making these jobs great options for people who prefer a work schedule outside the traditional 9 am -5 pm. UNITE HERE Local 17, Minnesota's hospitality union, helped us design this training, & our employer partner is ready to hire!

In addition, our FREE program for qualifying individuals provides many specialized services that meet the needs of busy people.

Program Highlights:

In addition to training onsite at Saint Paul College's culinary training facilities, you'll receive a full range of other assistance:

- Personalized, one-to-one help from a Program Navigator throughout the program
- Support services to help you graduate
- Work readiness and other training to help you get a good union job in the hospitality field and meet your long-term goals
